

The Herald and News

We hear it stated that Mr. J. C. McWaiter will build an addition to his store at the West End of Main street at an early date, and open a first-class fancy grocery and market.

The following young men of Newberry College went to Columbia last week as delegates to the State convention of the Young Men's Christian Association: L. A. Black, J. W. Ballentine, J. H. Shultz, A. B. Caughman, H. H. Hattiwanger, W. E. Derrick and J. C. Lybrand.

Camp "James D. Nance, No. 336, U. C. V.," will meet in the Court House on Saturday, February 15th instant, at 11 o'clock sharp. Business of importance to transact.

Senator Sharpe has announced his candidacy for comptroller general in the next primary. He has had much experience in the legislature, both as a member of the house and the senate, and has paid particular attention to taxation and finance of the State. Senator Sharpe is from Lexington.

The committee of the State Oratorical association, held its meeting at Due West a few days ago and decided that the inter-collegiate contest will be held at Greenwood, S. C., on April 18th. We suppose that a contest will be held at an early date to decide who will represent Newberry College in this contest.

Mrs. Jiles Marion Berry will entertain on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock with the first of a series of informal card parties in honor of Miss Myrtle Schumpert, of Newberry, S. C., and Miss Annie Mae Fritts, of Chatsanooga, Tenn.—Augusta Chronicle, 9th.

The governor a few days ago commuted the sentence of Greenwood Washington, colored, who was convicted in 1899 of larceny of live stock in this county. He was sent to the county chaulang for two years. His sentence was commuted to 18 months and the negro was given his freedom one day last week. Solicitor General recommended the pardon.

But her beauty was completely hidden by sores, blotches and pimples till she used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Then they vanished as well as Eruptions, Fever Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Carbuncles and Felons from its use. Infalible for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Scalds and Piles. Cure guaranteed. 25c at all druggists.

The Atlanta Journal in its issue of last Saturday presented a full-page picture of Miss Myrtle Abby Schumpert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schumpert of this city, who is at present visiting Mrs. J. M. Berry and Mrs. Porter Fleming in Augusta. This was but a deserved compliment to a beautiful and charming young lady, who is popular at home, and as The Journal says is most popular and has hosts of friends in Georgia.

There are the days of colds, sharp and sudden, attacking throat and lungs, and leading to consequences one does not like to think about. Avoid further exposure and fight the enemy of health and comfort with Perry Davis' Pain Killer the family stand-by for sixty years. It conquers a cold in a day. See that you get the right article. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

Rutherfordton, Feb 8.—W. H. Hunter, H. L. Clowe, C. D. Wilkie, G. W. Rollins and C. E. Geer, of the cherry tree concern, who have been on trial for the past two days charged with having used the mails for fraudulent purposes, were found in a bond of $1,000 each for their appearance at the next term of the Charlotte Federal Court. This makes 11 of the cherry tree men who have been found over, and there are yet other arrests to be made. District Attorney Holton and C. E. Eaton left for Greensboro last evening—Charlotte Observer.

It is rumored that the Newberry knitting mill will soon add a dye plant to their equipment.

Mr. Perry Simpson has been elected to teach the Deaf Fall school, Mr. Walter S. Henry having resigned that position.

Some who claim to be authority on the question say that the price of cotton will soon reach 10 cents. This will benefit the farmer now but little.

While in the city next week attending court, drop in to see us. Make The Herald and News office headquarters. We will be glad to see any of our friends.

Rev. Dr. S. F. Hattiman, who is engaged in mission work in Spartanburg, came over to spend Sunday with his family. He is meeting with encouragement in Spartanburg.

Sheriff Buford requests us to ask any whose names appear on either of the jury lists who live in the country, and who happen to be in the city during the week, to please drop into his office and get the summons, as the time is so short before court. By doing this, a great favor will be done the sheriff.

Sheriff Buford returned from Columbia yesterday with E. P. Powell, for whom he had a warrant since last July. The warrant was sworn out by Mr. J. H. West before Magistrate Chappell for breach of trust. Sheriff Buford located Powell in Columbia and secured him Monday morning.

Col. and Mrs. George Johnstone came down from Newberry yesterday to hear Sousa's Band.—State, 9c.

Mr. O. L. Vessinger, of Newberry College, went to Due West last Friday to attend a meeting of the committee to decide where the intercollegiate contest should be held.

Mrs. D. F. Eford and little daughter, of Lexington, returned home yesterday from a ten days' visit to her sister, Mrs. S. J. Derrick on college hill. Hon. D. F. Eford spent several days in town last week.

A Deep Mystery. It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia. "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at all druggists.

THE BAND OF HOPE

The Annual Treat This Afternoon—A Happy and a Beautiful Custom—A Delightful Occasion for the Children—Those Who Get the Prizes.

The annual treat of the Band of Hope, a temperance organization started in Newberry several years ago by Mrs. C. Mower, and kept up since Mrs. Mower's death through the untiring efforts of Mrs. Sophia Rodus, now the President, and the generosity of Hon. George S. Mower, will be held this afternoon at the Thompson Street Church.

There is no telling the amount of good this noble or is doing in Newberry for the cause of temperance.

At the annual treat this afternoon an interesting exercise will be held and those who attend will be more than repaid for their time and trouble in witnessing the happy throng of little children.

Those who did not miss a meeting during the year, will be awarded the first prize, which is $1.50. Their names are:

CAPITAL PRIZE LIST. Tom Bradburn, Lizzie Earhardt, Eloise Earhardt, Minnie Havard, Corrie Lee Havard, Carrie Pool, Mary Francis Pool, Jordan Pool, James Smith, Mrs. Singleton, Emma Shackelford, Katie Summer.

A second prize will be given those who missed only one time during the year.

SECOND PRIZE LIST. Minnie Adams, Mallet Hunter, Dora Mann, Dorel Smith, James Kinard. The third prize is a book, which is given to all those who make an average attendance of over 50 per cent. during the year.

THE BOOK LIST. Paul Adams, Ethel Bowers, Mary Burton, Frank Bradburn, Lucile Cavanaugh, Anna Cavanaugh, Ernest Cavanaugh, Adel Dunbar, Josephine Dunbar, Mary Flynn, Eva Goggans, Ruby Goggans, Hanna Green, Annie Green, William Green, Morsie Hayes, Sarah Hayes, Francis Herbert, Lois Jones, Ethel Kinard, Jennie Mann, Lillie Mann, Nannie Mann, Sarah Pope, Ruth Perry, Mrs. Sophia Rodus, (President), Verma Summer, Gilbert Summer, George Summer, Lila Summer, Ruby Summer, Bernice Todd, Pearl West, Alice West, Carrie Belle West, Tilla West, Thomas Wicker, Keeler Wicker, Rebecca Wicker, Ernestine Wicker, Sarah White, Donald White, Jas. THE LITTLE FOLKS. The following is a list of those who attend the meetings often, but who are not members:

Emmett Cabaniss, David Green, Preston Williamson, James Epling, Earle Hunter, Moriat Hayes, James Gaillard, Marion Earhardt, Carrol Dennis, Kathleen Myers, Robert West, Katie May Franklin.

All will receive candies or fruits and none of the members will fail to be remembered.

The membership now numbers 131, and the thirteen little ones make the number 144.

The number of meetings held during the year was 40.

BASEBALL GAMES. Several Have Already Been Scheduled by Manager Seitzler.

Several games for the Newberry College baseball team have already been scheduled. The games so far arranged by Prof. E. B. Seitzler, who has been made manager for the season are as follows:

Newberry vs. Clinton, at Clinton, on the afternoon of the 14th and the morning of 15th of March.

Newberry vs. Clinton, at Newberry, on the afternoon of March 21st and the morning of the 22nd.

Newberry vs. Furman, at Newberry, on the 27th of March.

Newberry vs. the Citadel, in Charleston, on the 4th of April.

It will be seen that three games have already been arranged to be played on the home diamond. The two with Clinton will come at the time of the societies' anniversary in March, and the one with the Citadel during the visit of the college to the Charleston Exposition.

BROOKS SLIGH ARRESTED.

Charged With Attempting to Beat His Board Bill.

The Washington Post has the following to say about E. Brooks Sligh, who is well known here:

"E. Brooks Sligh is the name of a well-dressed man of 35, who is held at the Sixth precinct police station, charged with defrauding the Cosmopolitan hotel out of a board bill amounting to $8. He was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by one of the employees of the hotel. It is said that Sligh was once a deputy marshal at Columbia, S. C. He has resided in Washington, however, for a number of years."

For Cause Night Alarm. "One night my brother baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Sligh, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve. Infalible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists."

Palermo has a fine new theater. The estimated cost was 2,450,000 francs; the real cost was 7,000,000.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough caused by attack of la grippe. It heals the lungs. Glido & Weeks.
